

CITIZEN INTEREST FORM

Application for Committee Member

This document is a public document.

The City of Lindsay is currently looking for volunteers to serve on the Disability Advisory Committee (DAC). The DAC provides a forum for community members and persons with disabilities to assist the City in its program and plans for making all City streets and facilities compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act, and to discuss issues that the community and persons with disabilities have concerning access to public facilities, and achieving full integration into society and the workplace. You need not be disabled to apply.

Your contribution is greatly appreciated.
